

IN The early part of 1988, Edna and I started to work up her Genealogy which would also apply to her brothers, Ralph, Glenn and Edgar. We did this because of her interest in preserving family history. Also so the children might know more about their ancestors. I did it because of my regard for Edna and I enjoy doing these things. They became very interesting and fascinating. Thus we both did it for the love of family history and not for monetary gain or personal fame.

We are very thankful to all family member, near and far, who helped us with the project. Also to libraries, Court Houses, Genealogical Societies both in West Virginia and Pennsylvania.

A personal THANKS goes to Doc for taking us up "hollers" where it would have been difficult to "whip a goat".

Also to Tonya and Cori for climbing through bushes and briars so the information on a tombstone could be cleaned and become readable. Also to Tonya for zexxing the pages to make these books.

Our son, Bill, got the different forms and covering so Edna could have an attractive cover for her book.

So this is Sept. 25, 1990 and we are assembling all the information we have but will continue our search for answers to the many questions remaining.

We hope you will enjoy looking through these pages.

Edna and Mae

IN LOVING REMEMBRANCE OF

Christopher Ashenhart
Died Nov. 8, 1928.
Age 79 years.

Gone but not forgotten

A precious one from us has gone
A voice we loved is stilled;
A place is vacant in our home,
Which never can be filled.
God in His wisdom has recalled
The boon his love had given,
And though the body slumbers here,
The soul is safe in Heaven.

William Johnson Husk

In The Monongalia Story by Earl Core, Vol. 1, A branch of Dunkard Creek was named Husk Run after an early settler, Frederick Husk (CA 1760-1770) who had settled there. This same stream was after ward named Dol Sniders Run after another early settler, Randolph Snider using his nick name "Dol." This name later developed into Doll's Run which name is still in use.

Green County, Pa. Census of 1860 of Perry Township (Mt. Morris)
We find a Oliver Husk living in the household of Henry Johnson family. He was 18 and born in Pa. Listed as farmer.

Green County Pa. Census of 1880 of Perry Township (Mt. Morris)
We find Oliver Husk, Farmer, Age 39 with wife Mahala, Age 38. His parents were born in W.V. Oliver was born in Pa. as was his wife, Mahala and her parents. 6 children listed: Sarah E. 15, Clark F. 10, Albert R. 8, Hadie L. 5, Eli K. 3, Cary D. 1/2.

History of Monongalia Story, Vol. 1 by Earl Core

Dolls Run Christian Church 1874

Officers this year: Jos. J. Wharton plus others

Three Male Bible Classes. Members of Class No. 3 were: Wm. L. Wharton, Jacob L. Wharton, William J. Husk, Richard Husk, plus others.

Female class No. 2 Members: Rebecca Wharton, Louisa Husk plus others.

None of the people named above are mentioned in the classes of 1878 when a new church was erected.

Oct. 1850 Census Alleppo Township, Pa.

Isaac Husk Age 33 b. Va. Farmer $250.

June " " 26 b. Pa. Housewife

Samuel " " 5 " "

John E. " " 3 " "

Absolom " " 1 " "

This can't be the father of Wm. J. Husk Although he was born in Va. (W.V.). No doubt he is a relative. Our Isaac would have been 12 yrs. old in 1850. Also our Isaac was born in Pa.

Our opinion is that our Husks settled in Va. (W.V.) near Cassville. They later moved to Pa. at or near Mt. Morris.

Also that the Whartons lived in Va. (W.V.) near Cassville. They, too, moved to Pa.

While in Va., the two families were neighbors as the church records on the preceding page show. The Louisa Husk in the Bible class could be the 2nd. wife of Isaac Husk.

IN CONCLUSION. Since, to this date - 9-21-90 -, we have been unable to find very much authentic about the parents and family of Wm. Johnson Husk, we will assume that certain theories are true. For example, we find in the 1860 Census of Cassville, Monongalia County, Va that he was  $\frac{9}{12}$  yrs. old. His father is listed as Isaac Husk b. Pa. Farmer. His mother (presumably) is listed as Elizabeth J. We assume this to be correct as they are listed as one household. We also assume that the "J" is for Johnson and that Wm. J. was named for her maiden name.

Further - At Wm. J.'s death, we find recorded in Wetzel County W.V. that his father was Isaac Husk and his mother was Louisa Wharton. Now we assume that Elizabeth J. died while Wm. J. was very young and Isaac married Louisa Wharton. So she would have been his Step-Mother and The One he had fondest Memories of.

Wm. J. is remembered as Telling about Coming To Tyler County from Pa. With his uncles Abner and Jasper Wharton. He is remembered as being very loyal To Them and Their families.

So Assuming More - Louisa Could have been a Sister of The Whartons Mentioned Above which would Make Them Wm. J.'s Uncles.

We are Certain That Wm. J. had a Sister Named Jennie Roach who lived at Mt. Morris but have been unable To Verify This. He did Talk about her and WENT To see her when he could. She Also visited him in Tyler County.

There is presumed To be a brother or half-brother but we have been unable To Verify This. Maybe The Richard Husis Named as a Member of The Dolls Run Christian Church was Wm. J.'s half brother. Also Maybe Jos. J. Wharton, an officer in That Church was Wm. J.'s uncle Jasper.

Short History of Joseph Mc Intyre

He was born in Harrison County, Va. (Probably at Enterprise) on 1 Jan. 1784. He was drafted in The War of 1812. He was drafted at Bridgeport, Va. 13 Aug. 1814 for a period of six months. He was discharged at Norfolk, Va. where he had marched from Bridgeport. Discharge date 8 Dec. 1814 due to illness.

At this time he owned 100 Acres of land in Harrison County. Due to ill health, he realized 100 Acres were not enough to leave his 10 children. (4 of the 14 had died). So he traded the 100 Acres in Harrison for 1000 Acres of Woodland in Tyler County, Va. He bought this land from Daniel and Mary Moore. Thus he gave each child 100 Acres. The sons built a log Cabin on what is now Mc Intyre Fork, Tyler Co.

Joseph and his wife Mary are buried on the farm on Walnut Fork of Indian Creek. He died 10 Apr. 1845. We are unable to locate his grave. Mary Polly Glover is buried in the Mc Intyre Cemetery.

John McIntyre, (It is spelled 'McIntire' in The History of Enterprise in Harrison County) was born in Pennsylvania - probably Philadelphia as that's where his father, Charles, came to from Ireland about 1760. He married Rachel Rose and came to Va (now W.V.) presumably with his parents. The McIntyres laid claim to property at Enterprise, "The District of West Augusta", Harrison Co. Va. The claim extended from what is now the Harrison-Marion County Line and what is now St. Route #19 to the Big Elm farm near Shinnston.

The McIntire Blockhouse was built just south of the town limits of Enterprise and to the west of Rt. #19. There is a roadside sign erected near the location of the new bridge to the west side of the West Fork River. The blockhouse was torn down about 1984. A house now stands where the original McIntire home was located. It's doubtful that it would be the original home. However a new house has been built on the site of the blockhouse and is occupied by Harry McIntire - a descendant.

John and Rachel lived on Nutter Ridge and had five children. Nutter can now be reached from Enterprise or from Pingamon Run (Long Run on map). They did day work for people in Enterprise. One evening they were returning home from their day's work when they were attacked by the Indians. John was scalped. Rachel was taken by the Indians who were pursued by some town's people. This was in 1791. Some historians pinpoint it May 11. The Indians were chased to the Ohio River as this was their permanent home. (They camped near or between Harrison and Mingoahela Counties in the summer) After a skirmish near the Ohio River, the Indians retreated. Rachel's scalp was found in the debris. John and Rachel were buried in a peach orchard between the West Fork River and Rt. #19 in an unmarked grave. A new house has been built at or near where they were thought to be buried. The bonnet that Rachel wore is enclosed in a glass container at the home of Clair Hess, Mannington, W.V. John & Rachel's granddaughter married Henry Hess.

Short History of Charles McEntyre

This name is often spelled McEntire.

Charles McEntyre's Father (We do not know his name) probably came from Scotland to Ireland with the Army of William III in 1690 and fought at Boyne.

Charles was in America before 1763 as he is listed as a "Mariner" living in Philadelphia, Pa. in 1774. (His son John was born in Pa. in 1754 according to the record we have). This port was a gateway for thousands of Scotch-Irish and German immigrants. He (Charles) purchased land in Fredrick Co. Va. in 1763 from Lord Fairfax.

By 1773 he had acquired land in the District of West Augusta, Harrison Co., Va. This is on the Eastern Edge of Enterprise, Harrison Co., Va.

He enlisted in the Virginia Continental Army and fought as a Revolutionary War Soldier. He died shortly after the war.
