Short History of Charles McEntyre

This name is often spelled McEntire.

Charles McEntyre's Father (We do not know his name) probably came from Scotland to Ireland with the Army of William III in 1690 and fought at Boyne.

Charles was in America before 1763 as he is listed as a "Mariner" living in Philadelphia, Pa. in 1774. (His son John was born in Pa. in 1754 according to the record we have). This port was a gateway for thousands of Scotch-Irish and German immigrants. He (Charles) purchased land in Frederick Co., Va. in 1763 from Lord Fairfax.

By 1773 he had acquired land in the District of West Augusta, Harrison Co., Va. This is on the Eastern Edge of Enterprise, Harrison Co., Va.

He enlisted in the Virginia Continental Army and fought as a Revolutionary War Soldier. He died shortly after the war.
